

For Immediate Release: February 18, 2014

DALLAS ISD TO RECRUIT QUALIFIED TEACHING CANDIDATES IN SAN JUAN, PUERTO RICO

Representatives will be conducting an information session and interviews from February 27 - March 2, 2014

DALLAS—The Dallas Independent School District will host interviews in San Juan, Puerto Rico, to recruit certified teachers interested in securing a Texas teaching certificate while teaching in the district. The team will be in San Juan from Thursday, Feb. 27, through Sunday, Mar. 2. Qualified candidates will be eligible for hire for the 2014-2015 school year.

The Alternative Certification department of the Human Capital Management division will host an information session on Friday, Feb. 28 from 7- 9 p.m., at the Embassy Suites Hotel, 8000 Tartak Street, San Juan, Puerto Rico.

Interested candidates must have a teaching certificate in Puerto Rico or the U.S., hold a bachelor degree in Education and must be fluent in English and Spanish. To schedule an interview, please visit http://bit.ly/PR_teach4dallas.

For questions or concerns, please contact Ileana Morales at \(972\) 925-4223925-4223) or email imoralescolon@dallasisd.org.